BREAKING NEWS

Scientists on Earth have been observing your new home and have made a Mars-shattering discovery! Satellite images appear to show black rivers on Mars. Can you investigate and report back with a news story?

Zap to view images from the Mars Express orbiter.

Hi Mars explorers!
I'm Cindy Forde, a science communicator. You'll need a catchy headline and a great image to get our attention. Make sure your story is based on the most up-to-date science and facts too.
